Summary and reviews of Genesis by Bernard Beckett

Patrick Ness. From the Reviews: "Her interview, all five hours of it, makes up the entirety of Genesis, a daring formal experiment that may not always work dramatically, but has a palate-cleansing purity unusual in most young adult fiction. (...) Beckett has written a very different young adult novel -- assured, cool, almost cold -- that will make smart teenagers feel very respected."

Genesis - Bernard Beckett - Complete Review

Overall, an absorbing, not-light, original, complex, fascinating, and emotionally engaging novel, written by a scientist who is clearly a passionate person who cares deeply about the dilemmas humanity faces. If you can appreciate a very unique story-telling style and unique imagining of the future you will enjoy "Genesis".
