MD: Besides the amazing full kits, you have quite a snare drum collection. David: My snare collection is a true passion of mine. Having one of Ringo's limited snares from Gary Astridge is a highlight, as is the Keith Moon snare drum, Carl Palmer's Paiste snare, and a rare Fibes snare played by Buddy Rich.

playing drums at the age of nine. He performed in the bands Grad, Smokey Blue, Rampant, and the Johnny Kalendar Band. When Allen was 14, his mother replied on his behalf to an advertisement placed by a band called Def Leppard looking for a drummer to replace Tony Kenning ("Leppard loses skins" was the advertisement's headline).

Rick Allen (drummer) - Wikipedia

The '70s were a drummers smorgasbord. You could have as many drummers as you wanted and as much of a variety as you wanted. It seemed like rock and roll branched off into hard rock, heavy metal, jazz rock, country rock, soft rock, disco, soul, r&b, pop, art rock, punk rock, new wave . . . nothing was simple anymore.
