At You Be You we're committed to changing the way society thinks, acts and feels around gender stereotypes. We're starting with schools, by designing research- informed PHSE lessons beginning at year 1. But we know our work can't stop in the classroom, it needs to work across the whole school and stretch beyond the school gates. ...

You be you! Don't be your parents or grandparents. You can admire them, appreciate them, and learn from them. But you cannot be them. Don't compare yourself with others. The apostle Paul said "...each of you must take responsibility for doing the creative best you can with your own life (Galatians 6:4-5)." Jesus was insistent upon this.
